2. Course Registration Procedure

A. Course Registration Guidelines

Students must get guidance from the head of their department before registering for courses to complete the program, and for courses run by other departments for credit exchange, undergraduate courses, and extra courses. (Students must get guidance from the head of their minor department for minor courses.)

B. Internet Registration: Course registration is possible on the Internet.

① Login

- URL: <http://sugang.ewha.ac.kr>
- Login: Enter student ID and password and click the “Login” button.
- For new students, the password is the first 6 digits of their resident registration number. This password can be changed later by going to the Ewha homepage → EUREKA → Personal Information→ Password Modify.

② Guide to registration menu

- View/Register for Courses: You can register for courses after searching for a specific course and viewing information such as the Graduate school, department/major, course title/course number, etc.
- Direct Input: You can register by directly entering the course number and class.
- To complete registration: After course registration, click the “Logout” button at the right top of the window.

C. Confirmation of registration: Students can check the results of their registration at the end of the registration period by going to Internet Registration(<http://sugang.ewha.ac.kr>) → “ⓂView Course Registration”. Courses that are not entered in the Internet Registration will not be accepted.

- D. For more information, refer to Ewha Graduate School homepage (<http://graduate.ewha.ac.kr>)
→Academics→Courses.

3. Important Notes for Course Registration

- A. Possible credits for each semester: Regular students of Master's, Doctoral, and combined Master's and Doctoral programs may register for a maximum of 12 credits per semester. If taking extra credits, students may register for up to 15 credits per semester. Research students in these programs may only register for a maximum of 6 credits per semester.
- B. Graduate students must complete at least half of the total required credits (except "extra credits") at the department(major) to which the students belong. For more information, refer to "II. Completing courses → 1. Total credits needed for graduation.
- C. Students who have completed their courses may not register for courses.
- D. Students who have not completed the Master's program for more than 4 semesters(Doctoral programs for more than 3 semesters) must apply for the thesis seminar to receive thesis guidance or thesis examination. Students who have completed their courses will be automatically enrolled once they have paid for the thesis fee.
- E. Students entering graduate programs since 2014 should complete the required research ethics course. For more information, refer to "II. Completing courses → 3. Research Ethics Courses" below.
- F. Courses are classified as major courses, extra credits, minor courses, general courses or a thesis seminar. Students can check how many credits they have completed towards their program, by visiting the following site; Ewha homepage → Eureka → My Eureka → Academic affairs → Grade → Student Credit Acquirement Enquiry.
- G. An introduction to courses offered and course syllabi can be found at the Ewha homepage → Academic Resources → Course schedule/syllabus, or Course Registration Portal (<http://sugang.ewha.ac.kr>) → Course Timetable&Planning
- H. Students who are endowed with extra credits must enter "Extra credits" as the course classification when registering for extra courses. You can switch the course classification via Course Registration Portal. Choose the course on My Course Registration and select "Extra credit", and click the "Change" button.
- I. Students who wish to take minor courses must choose "Minor" for the course classification during their minor course registration. You can switch the course classification via Course Registration Portal. Choose the course on My Course Registration and select "Minor", and click the "Change" button.
- J. Retaking courses: Students who entered after 2008 may retake courses.
- ① Recognized courses
- Students may only retake courses offered by Ewha Womans University each year or each semester, and this must be approved by the department offering the course and the department (major) to which the student belongs.

- Courses can only be retaken if the student was originally awarded a grade lower than C+ for that course.
 - Courses may only be retaken once
- ② Grading of retaken courses
- The original grade is deleted and excluded from calculation of the student's GPA. The course will be excluded from the student's number of completed credits.
 - The retaken course is labeled "R" (Repeated Course) on school performance records.
 - The original course is not listed on the student's transcript.
- ③ Grade limitation: The highest possible grade for a retaken course is A-.
- ④ How to register: Students must complete a "Retaking Course Registration Form," have it confirmed, and submit it to the Registrar's Office.
- ⑤ Important Notes on Retaking Courses Grading of retaken courses
- The Thesis Seminar and research modules for individual subjects cannot be retaken.
 - If the Retaking Course Registration Form is not submitted, the student's registration will not be processed as a retake.
 - Credits for retaken courses should be within the number of credits allowed per semester.
- K. If there are identical courses within the courses to be completed for the Master's, Doctoral or combined Master's and Doctoral programs, the identical courses will be considered as being completed once only when accessing for program completion. That is, if a student completes a course as part of a Doctoral program which is also necessary for the Master's program, the course will be considered completed just for the Master's program.
- ※ Courses that will be considered as the same course: Courses with the same course number, Courses with the same titles or Courses with the similar titles and with the same course description.
- L. To take a major practice course in the College of Music, students must register the course after receiving confirmation of each academic advisor and class from the College of Music's departmental office (tel. 02-3277-2432).
- M. As there are certain courses run by the Research Institute which students in the University-Research Cooperative Program (KIST) are required to take to complete their major, students should make sure they take these courses (course numbers start with H).
- N. Notices about cancelled courses, course teachers, lecture times and classrooms can be found at Ewha homepage → Academics → Schedule/Syllabus, or ask at departmental offices.
